

DEVIATE To a New Norm

Status Quo
Same Old Same Old

New Normal
Success This Way
VOLUNTEERISM

How "nice to have" became "need to have"

New research proves that volunteers are a key differentiator in nonprofit and for-profit business success and that volunteers strengthen everyone's bottom-line.

Leave yesterday's thinking behind and find out how breakthrough cross-sector partnerships and understanding are key to growing our mutual bottom line: a stronger and healthier community. None of us can do it alone.

Join us to connect with your nonprofit and for-profit colleagues and partners.

You should attend if you are a:

Nonprofit Executive Director
Corporate Foundation Executive
Nonprofit Volunteer Manager
Employee Volunteer Manager
Volunteer Leader

The Bay Area Volunteer Leaders Forum
October 14, 2010

8:30 am – 5:00 pm

SPUR Urban Center, 654 Mission Street, San Francisco

Networking Reception

5:00 – 7:00 pm

Keynote Speaker:

Karen Baker

Secretary for Service and Volunteering for the State of California

For more information, visit:

www.thevolunteercenter.net

Registration Fee: $35

Presented by the volunteer center Serving San Francisco and San Mateo Counties

Sponsored by Be what's possible
Gap Inc.

The Bay Area Volunteer Leaders Forum